

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
FACULTY OF LAW

Photo by Doree Chan

SYMPOSIUM IN HONOUR OF JUSTICE ROSALIE SILBERMAN ABELLA

This symposium will celebrate the many contributions retired Justice Abella has made to Canadian law and civic life. The symposium will be organized around three scholarly papers in areas of law in which Justice Abella has been particularly active: labour law, equality rights law, and public / administrative law. Three papers will be presented by Professors Adelle Blackett (McGill Law), Paul Daly (uOttawa Common Law) and Martha Minow (Harvard Law), addressing some broad themes or issues of interest in these areas. Each paper will also feature two invited commentators, who will discuss the issues in relation to Justice Abella's own work.

LABOUR LAW AS SUBSTANTIVE EQUALITY

Speakers

Prof. Adelle Blackett
McGill Law

Prof. Supriya Routh
U Victoria Law

Prof. Claire Mumme
U Windsor Law

THE AUTONOMY OF ADMINISTRATION

Speakers

Prof. Paul Daly
uOttawa Common Law

Prof. Matthew Lewans
U Alberta Law

Prof. Geneviève Cartier
Université de Sherbrooke, Faculté de droit

EQUALITY AND EQUITY

Speakers

Prof. Martha Minow
Harvard Law School

Prof. Sabine Tsuruda
Queen's Law

Sr. Fellow, Queen's Law
Elizabeth Shilton

23 SEPTEMBER 2022
8:30 AM - 4:00 PM

Free symposium

JACKMAN LAW BLDG
78 QUEEN'S PARK | J140

Limited Seats